

The Frueh family, Hungary July 29, 2025 Update

Dear Friends,

I just wanted to send out a quick update about our move this month back to Nagykanizsa. We have had several people look at our home, but we still don't have a buyer. If we don't have a realistic buyer by the end of this week, we will need to move forward with renting something. The hard part with that is that the minimum contract will be a year. In my opinion, it would be far simpler and better financially if we could just move directly into a purchased home. We would appreciate your prayers for us right now that God would help us with this. His plan is always the best.

We are also meeting this week with several of our friends here for a final goodbye. Pray that God would bless these times. We had the opportunity to have a gospel conversation again with Timi, Hannah's mother, in their home yesterday evening. We will be meeting with Brigitta, Enikő, and Anett this week still, along with their families.

God blessed our camp ministry with other Hungarian churches. Thank you for praying for that. The children were very attentive, and we had some good conversations with some of them about the gospel. The Lord also blessed the ministry of Jim and Myra Wright, as well as the Weimer family with us this year.

Thank you for your prayers!
